Warships
Maneuver
Near Isle

NICOSIA, Cyprus, March 2 (UPI)—Warships of both Greece and Turkey maneuvered today near the island of Cyprus where officials showed the first signs of optimism about a negotiated settlement of the crisis.

The Greek and Turkish governments said the naval maneuvers had nothing to do with the situation on Cyprus, but officials of the Greek-dominated island government warned Turkey against trying an invasion to come to the aid of Cyprus' Turkish minority.

A Greek fleet of destroyers, troop transports and landing ships sailed from Crete and elsewhere yesterday for exercises in the Aegean sea. Informed sources said the transports were packed with soldiers.

The Greek naval action followed similar Turkish maneuvers started last week 80 miles off Cyprus in the eastern Mediterranean. Three Turkish submarines also were participating in a NATO exercise with American ships around Sams Island. The NATO maneuvers were announced early last December before the Cyprus crisis erupted with fighting between the island's Greek and Turkish communities.

Greek Defense Minister Peter Giaroulakis said in Athens that the Greek naval maneuvers were routine and without special importance.

Gambler Won't Talk
At Baker Hearing

WASHINGTON, March 2 (UPI)—Las Vegas gambling operator Edward Levinson today refused to answer any questions in the senate's Bobby Baker investigation and charged that government agents had tapped his phone. Levinson, owner of the Fremont hotel in Las Vegas, invoked the first, fourth and fifth amendments of the constitution and specifically "the privilege against self-incrimination." "I refuse to provide any additional information to any agents of the government," Levinson said. "... any answers could be used to incriminate me."

Levinson, reading from a prepared statement, said that "agents of the executive branch" in connection with the Central Telephone company of Nevada tapped his personal phone at the Fremont during 1963.

The elderly, dapper gambler, speaking in a soft but firm voice, said that all his conversations on the phone and in the office were monitored by an electronic device in his telephone.

Levinson said this was not only an unconstitutional invasion of his privacy but also violated federal and state laws. He added that he has instituted suit.

Levinson's lawyer, Edward L. Carey, Washington, complained bitterly that his client was served by a subpoena from the internal revenue service while waiting to testify.

Carey said Levinson was handed a subpoena by an IRS agent March 16. He said the summons was titled "The tax liability of Robert O. (Bobby) Baker" for the years 1958-62.

Carey said he challenged the agent's right to invade a congressional committee room to serve a witness with a subpoena.

Acting Rules Committee Chairman Howard W. Cannon, D., Nev., asked for a copy of the summons for the record. He said he "deplored the action of the federal government in taking advantage of serving a summons or subpoena on any witness appearing before a congressional committee."

The committee had been hunting Levinson for nearly two weeks. He walked into the committee's office today and accepted service of the committee subpoena.

Rules Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D., N.C., said Levinson appeared voluntarily.

12 Norwegians Start Trek
On Skis Across North Pole

OSLO, Norway, March 2 (UPI)—Twelve Norwegian students set out today on the first and easiest leg of their attempt to cross the north pole on skis.

The first leg of a charter plane flight to the U. S. air force base at Thule, Greenland, from there, the group will push northward to Kangerlussuaq and set up a base camp for the ski trek over the polar ice—a trip of 900 to 1000 miles covering 1,200 to 1,300 miles.

Outburst

DALLAS, March 2 (UPI)—Judge Joe E. Brown fined defense lawyer Joe H. Tonahill for contempt of court at the Jack Ruby trial today when he threw a pen to the floor in anger.

The flareup was the highlight of a session in which the search for two remaining jurors bogged down.

Five prospective jurors, including four from a brand new panel, were questioned and dismissed before the lunch recess. The defense and prosecution each challenged once and the other three were removed for cause.

A defense psychiatrist sat 10 feet from the slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, keeping a close and clinical eye on what the defense called his "deteriorating" mental state.

Tonahill paid $25 for his outburst.

Two Youths
In Hospital
After Wrecks

JEROME, March 2—Two Jerome youths are listed in good condition Monday at St. Bernard's hospital where they were taken after two separate accidents about 8 p. m. Saturday in Jerome county.

Alvin Meyer, 16, is listed in good condition after he and three other youths, all 16 years old, were taken from Valley high school, were struck by two cars while getting flares out of a stalled school bus.

Apparently the Valley high school youths had stopped their car to add the bus, which was stalled about five miles north of highway 25-93 junction, when a car driven by Dwayne Cook, 16, Eden, approached the scene and was in the process of stopping when struck from the rear by a 1959 Cadillac driven by Leo Terrell, Jerome justice of the peace.

The two cars then struck the four boys while they were getting the flares from the bus. A 1961 Chevrolet, driven by Mary C. Henry, 26, address unknown, then struck the two cars head on. Another three injured youths, Evan Black, Leland Volkers and Brick Wells, were all treated at the hospital and released.

Babies

Four Magic Valley babies will have birthdays every four years. All four were born Saturday, Leap Year day.

Twin sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. James Hellewell, Heyburn, at Ochs Memorial hospital, and daughters to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Kimberly, and Mrs. William Jones, Twin Falls, at Magic Valley Memorial hospital.

Outlook Improved
At Snow Stations

Almost all snow measuring stations located in the mountains south of Twin Falls have more than average moisture content, reports Glenn Nelson, chairman, Twin Falls soil conservation district. The measurements were taken Sunday by J. J. McLaws, Burley, and Myron Dossett, Twin Falls, snow surveyors. Mountain West Helicopters, Provo, provided transportation on a special test run to the snow courses. Only two stations reported below average moisture content. They were Bear Creek Meadows with 50.8 inches of snow, 13 inches of moisture, and Goat Creek with 47 inches of snow, 13.6 inches of moisture. The average is 15.4 inches of moisture for Bear Creek and 14.6 inches of moisture for Goat Creek.

Three Youths
In Jail for Auto Thefts

Three Twin Falls teenagers are being held in the city jail in connection with the theft of several automobiles from the Twin Falls area in the past week.

The three youths, all 14 years old, were apprehended by city and state police Saturday night while they were driving a stolen 1956 DeSoto, owned by Richard Summerfield, 2076 Addison avenue east.

According to M. Frank Barnett, police chief, the youths have admitted to about 10 auto thefts in this area during the past week. Three other teenagers, all about the same age, are also involved in the thefts, Barnett noted.

Parents of the three other youths have been notified of their sons' actions and will appear before juvenile authorities, he said.

All the automobiles stolen had the keys left in the ignition, Barnett said. This time of year people will leave their cars running while they enter a building, the reason or another, Barnett said, and it just tempts car thieves.

A professional auto thief will wait at a grocery store for instance, and when a person enters the store, if the car is running or the keys are in the ignition, he will take it, Barnett said.

34 ARE SAVED
HALIFAX, N.S., March 2 (UPI)—Thirty four survivors from the tanker Amphibious were brought safely to shore today by the Canadian destroyer escort which plucked them from the stormy North Atlantic where their ship split in two.

Other stations and the average are: Dead End Ridge, 80 inches of snow, 24.2 inches of moisture for an eight-year period. The picture is three times brighter there. A year ago there was only an unmeasurable trace at the Basin.

NEW YORK, March 2 (UPI)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur flew by plane today to enter Washington's Walter Reed army hospital for "observation and evaluation of abdominal complaints," an aide said.

The spokesman said the general flew in a military aircraft and was accompanied by his wife and Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, an aide.

Further details were not learned of the illness of the soldier who celebrated his 84th birthday Jan. 26.

Paradise Airlines
Constellation Hits
Sierra Nevada Peak

TAHOE VALLEY, Calif., March 2 (UPI)—A Paradise airlines Constellation that vanished in a snowstorm over Lake Tahoe was found smashed atop an 8,700-foot high Sierra Nevada ridge today and the air force said all 85 aboard were dead. An air force helicopter sighted the wreckage at 7:36 a.m. Shortly thereafter another helicopter landed and confirmed that it was the plane that disappeared yesterday while approaching Tahoe valley airport on the south shore of the lake.

Austria Air Crash
Bodies Are Sought

INNSBRUCK, Austria, March 2 (UPI)—Hundreds of mountain rescuers today began digging out the bodies of 83 victims, most of them ski vacationers, from the snow-covered wreckage of a British airliner that crashed into an alpine peak in Austria's worst air disaster.

Authorities said recovery of the bodies was complicated by the fact that the turboprop Britannia airliner, in crashing Saturday set off an avalanche that buried and carried away most of the victims. There were no survivors.

Searchers found 15 bodies in the first hours of daylight today. Between 300 and 400 mountain police and rescue corpsmen, all veterans of the beautiful but deadly peaks of the Austrian Tyrol, searched through the snow and stunted fir trees at the crash site on Mount Glungezer, six miles east of this winter olympics city.

March Roars in,
Snow Closes Schools

March roared in like a lion in Magic Valley Sunday leaving snow-covered highways and forcing the closing of schools in two Magic Valley communities. Fairfield schools were closed due to drifting snow which clogged highways and roads. Nine and one-half inches of new snow fell throughout the night and, combined with a brisk wind from the east, blocked all roads except state highways leading out of town. School will open Tuesday.

Richfield schools were closed and about 11 inches of snow fell in the area. Mail trucks and creamery trucks are out trying to make their rounds but are running about one hour behind schedules.

Hard blowing winds and snow conditions caused the road between American Falls and Raft River to close about 2 p.m. Sunday. The highway was opened about 5:30 p.m. for emergency traffic only but opened for all traffic Monday morning. The road was reported to be slick and snow covered.

The state highway department office at Shoshone reported most roads were slick and snow covered as a result of the week-end storm. About five inches of new snow fell in the Halley-Ketchum and Shoshone area Sunday leaving the highway from about 4 miles south of Shoshone to Halley snow covered.

A snow floor was reported in Arco, Carey and Fairfield, and on state highway 46 in the Gooding area a broken snow floor was reported.

On highway 20-26, in the Bliss area, a broken snow floor was reported, while on highway 30 it was bare. Buhl, Twin Falls, Jerome and Rogerson highways were also bare.

Four inches of new snow, making a total of eight inches on the ground, fell Sunday at Gooding but since there was no drifting school resumed as usual.

Halley and Ketchum received 3.2 inches of new snow and the Galena store reported 1 inches had fallen there Sunday.

Segregation Ban in Hospitals Upheld

WASHINGTON, March 2 (UPI)—By a brief but far-reaching order, the supreme court today let stand a lower court ruling that outlaws racial segregation of doctors and patients in hospitals built with the help of federal funds. The court did so by refusing to review a decision against two Greensboro, N. C., hospitals which had obtained assistance under the federal Hill-Burton act. Without comment, the court turned down a request of the two hospitals for a high court hearing on the case.

The impact of the action may extend to other states and communities which have used federal grants for hospital construction.

The decision banning segregation policies in such facilities was handed down last Nov. 1 by the four to three federal court of appeals which reversed a district federal judge's finding.

This lawsuit was initiated in 1962 by 11 Negro doctors, dentists and patients in the Greensboro area. The justice department later was allowed to participate in the case on the side of the Negroes.

In other actions today, the supreme court:

Upheld by a 6-3 vote a ruling that all of Texas' 23 congressional districts must be re-drawn but opened the way for delaying the action until after this year's elections. A lower federal court held that the Texas districts were unfairly drawn under the equal population landmark act in a Georgia case two weeks ago. The supreme court, however, gave the state until April 1 to obtain court relief "in light of the present circumstances including the imminence of the forthcoming election."

Water Grab Canal Would Alter Dry Nevada Route

LAS VEGAS, Nev., March 2 (UPI)—Travelers on U. S. highway 93 between Twin Falls and Las Vegas sometimes complain about the long stretches of nothing while traversing one desert to another, or one arid valley after another. But if Los Angeles city planners ever have their way in a scheme to tap Idaho's Snake river, the scenery will improve.

In fact, the proposed Snake to Lake Mead aqueduct as traced on a city of Los Angeles map roughly follows U. S. 93 almost all the way.

The plan calls for construction of a low dam at Thousand Springs in the Hagerman valley a few miles down the Snake from south of Jackpot to Lake Mead.

Builders admit they would have to drill 31 miles through four small ranges.

A reservoir would be created and electricity generated because of the fast fall in southern Nevada's Meadow Valley wash between Caliente and Glendale junctions. The water in the aqueduct would drop 4,518 feet in 80 miles. The planners don't say what would happen to the Union Pacific railroad tracks now occupying the wash.

Nevada lies in what geologists call the basin and range province. This means that the state is mainly composed of a series of ranges lying north and south with dry valleys between them. The Snake-to-Colorado aqueduct would make use of the troughs between the East Humboldt range and the Pahreah mountains, between the Gosnold mountains and the Antelope range, between the Schell Creek range and the Snake range, and west of the Wilson creek range into the Meadow Valley wash at Caliente.

The estimated cost of the aqueduct alone is figured at around $75 million dollars with another 25 million dollars for the Thousand Springs reservoir, 96 million dollars for the pumping plants and penstocks, 10 million dollars for the regulating reservoirs and about 240 million dollars for the power development facilities. This puts the total cost at about 940 million dollars to get 2.4 million acre feet of Snake river water per year to Lake Mead.

And to all this, Idaho officials were quick to jump up and say no. Even Interior Secretary Stewart Udall has said his department would not support such a monster plan. Even now it seems such a gigantic scheme will never be realized.

But to some of the motorists along eastern Nevada's U. S. 93 looking out the window at a huge pipe line, an occasional pumping station, a power plant and other features, the view might be better than the now bare panorama of desert.

Associates Of Estes Enter Jail

AMARILLO, Tex., March 2 (AP)—Two former associates of promoter Billie Sol Estes, himself bankrupt and under prison sentences, started serving their time behind bars Sunday night.

It was the end of a fight to stay free which began nearly two years ago for Coleman McSpadden, 47, Lubbock, and Ruel W. Alexander, 38, Amarillo.

Along with Estes, they were arrested March 22, 1962, on charges of mail fraud, based on dealings in mortgages secured by non-existent farm fertilizer tanks.

Estes, 38, under $140,000 in bonds, remains out of jail pending the outcome of appeals against state and federal prison terms totaling 23 years.

McSpadden drew 10 years in the penitentiary and Alexander six years on guilty pleas. Along with Harold E. Orr, 33, Amarillo, also sentenced to 10 years, they were allowed to delay going to prison as long as they remained available to testify against Estes.

Orr was found dead Friday with the engine of a car running in a closed garage at his home. A doctor said carbon monoxide poisoning caused death.

Royal Toot

EDINBURGH, Scotland, March 2 (AP)—The trumpeter was no "Dizzy" Gillespie or Louis Armstrong, but his performance last night received more attention than both those great horn men get in a week.

The boy with the horn was Queen Elizabeth's son, Prince Charles.

The 15-year-old Prince of Wales made his public debut as a trumpeter at evening services in St. Giles' cathedral here. He played with the 80-member orchestra of his Scottish school, Gordonstoun, and took part in two numbers.

Charles sang with the choir for the remainder of the service.

GOING BALD?

Mr. Newhouse, (left), gave about 20 minutes of his time for the Harlow free hair and scalp consultation and regrew his hair.

Mrs. Haller, (right), shows her results by the Harlow home treatment system.

TWIN FALLS TUESDAY
WILL SHOW HOW TO SAVE HAIR AND PREVENT BALDNESS

If you suffer from dandruff, excessive hair fall, thinning hair, excess oiliness or dryness or itchy scalp, or if your scalp is still creating hair, we urge you to take a few moments of your time to see the Harlow specialist and find out what you can do for your particular hair and scalp problem.

Surveys among men and women in all walks of life show that the worst enemies of your hair are (1) doubt and (2) delay. Many balding people who are doing nothing to help themselves are justifying their condition with thinking like this: "I don't think anybody can stop hair loss" or "I'm going to see an expert when I get around to it." That doesn't solve your problem. You are going to keep right on losing your hair until you are bald... unless you get your scalp in a healthy, hair-growing condition again.

If you are accepted, results are guaranteed by the Harlow company. You don't have to take our word—you will be given a written guarantee from the beginning of your treatments through its completion on a pro-rated basis.

If you are totally bald, there is nothing Harlow can do for you, now—see our specialist and put Harlow or no other treatment to rest to your hair worries.

Just go to the Hotel Regency in Twin Falls, Idaho, on Tuesday, March 3, between 1:00 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. and ask the desk clerk for F. J. Douglas' room number.

You will not be obligated or embarrassed in any way. Consultations are free and given in private. Remember, once your hair is gone it's too late to see anything Harlow can do for you, now—see our specialist and put Harlow or no other treatment to rest to your hair worries.

DISCUSSING PROPOSED lower Teton reclamation project to be constructed in southeastern Idaho, are, from left, Rep. Ralph Harding, D., Ida., Assistant Interior Secretary Kenneth Holom and Sen. Frank Church, D. Ida. The senate will have a hearing on the proposed $2-million-dollar reclamation project later this week.

Solon Says Officials Try To Halt Probe

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP)—Sen. Hugh Scott charges that the government is determined to block the Bobby Baker investigation and asks, "What do people high in the government have to hide?"

Scott, a Pennsylvania Republican, is a member of the senate rules committee which is investigating Baker's dealings while he was secretary to the senate's Democrats. This committee wants to find whether any conflict of interest was involved.

Baker resigned his $10,000 post under fire last October and has refused to testify about his dealings. He has invoked the fifth amendment protection against possible self-incrimination.

Scott has released a statement asking:

"What do people high in the government have to hide? What have they done that the public must not know? To what lengths will they go to prevent this investigation from continuing? "It seems clear that the government as a matter of policy, or individuals high in the government who influence policy, are determined to prevent the rules committee investigation of conflicts of interest from proceeding further."

The senate investigators plan to hear two witnesses today and a staff investigator was to summarize all of Baker's bank dealings before his resignation.

California May Get Some Powell Water

PAGE, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—Commissioner Floyd E. Doherty of the bureau of reclamation has pledged Lake Powell water, if necessary, to offset Colorado river commitments to California.

He told newsmen yesterday after a two-day trip on the lake behind Glen Canyon dam that the possibility arises because of a low upstream snowpack and a potentially below-average runoff.

"It is conceivable," he said, "that instead of adding to Lake Powell its present level will be reduced to meet downstream requirements for power and irrigation."

"This decision on how to accommodate the requirements of Glen Canyon and Hoover Dam during the critical filling period when confronted with much below average runoff, creates a problem of great magnitude for the secretary of the interior."

He said that in 1962, "for the first time in 60 years, we received a tremendous snowpack and rainfall on the Colorado river drainage after March 1."

Missionaries Guarded by Tribesmen

LEOPOLDVILLE, March 2 (AP)—Congolese tribesmen fought a battle to protect 13 Catholic missionaries from pro-communist terrorists Saturday in Kwilu province, reports reaching here said.

The Bayanzi tribesmen fought off an attack by drug-crazed terrorists, part of the bands that have killed missionaries and burned missions since the first of the year in a campaign to drive whites from the province.

The terrorists, led by former Cabinet Minister Pierre Mulele, a Peking-trained rebel, were armed with bows and arrows, lances and war-axes.

They swooped down on the Kikandi mission, about 30 miles from the provincial capital of Kisumu. The missionaries had turned down a United Nations offer of evacuation after an earlier raid.

The mission officials told the United Nations at that time: "Thank you very much, but our Bayanzi tribesmen will protect us and the terrorists dare not attack."

The missionaries proved to be right. The Bayanzi warriors rushed to the station when the terrorists approached and blocked the attack after fierce fighting.

The missionaries then withdrew. The Congolese army was believed heading toward the area to provide them more protection.

In other areas of the province, army units were slowly clearing out hundreds of rebel roadblocks and ditches, making the countryside safe between the capital and the isolated towns of Idofa and Oungu.

U. N. helicopters flew reconnaissance flights ahead of the troops to spot any rebels waiting in ambush. Most of the villages along the way have been burned by Mulele's men. A World Health organization doctor working in the area said that these are the villages that refuse to cooperate with the terrorists.

"The population is in a hopeless position" where the rebels have control, he said. "The terrorists come in to try to force them to provide a certain number of 'volunteers' and food. If they don't comply the village is burned."

"Later the army comes and finds out that young warriors are missing, which means the village supports the terrorists. So the people get it from both sides."

News Around Idaho

POCATELLO, March 2 (AP)—Bannock County Coroner Burton H. John has ruled as accidental the gunshot death of a three-year-old Pocatello boy, John said Richard Christopher Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Pacer, Pocatello, died shortly after he fired a .22 caliber bullet into his throat Sunday morning. He said the boy had been taken by his parents to a friend's home while they went to church. He said the boy went into a bedroom, found the loaded rifle and discharged it.

POCATELLO, March 2 (AP)—Raw milk, the subject of much discussion here last fall, will again come under consideration by the Pocatello city commission this week. Chairman Earl R. Pond says the commission will try to make a decision at that time whether to allow the sale of raw milk in the city. Last year, the commission adopted an ordinance flatly banning the sale of raw (unpasteurized) milk in the city after April 1, 1964. The commission was asked to reconsider the measure last fall, but in a 5-2 vote decided to make no changes.

POST FALLS, March 2 (AP)—Idaho's highway traffic fatality toll stood at 23 today with the deaths Sunday of two young women in a head-on crash on U. S. highway 10 about five miles east of the Idaho-Washington line. Killed in the smashup, which also resulted in injuries to three men, were Mrs. Sharon Laugh, 19, and Anna M. Zimmerman, 19, both Coeur d'Alene. Mrs. Laugh's husband, Arthur R. Laugh, 18, and Donald Schrock, 18, were taken to a Spokane hospital where their condition was described as "critical" Sunday night. Officers said the four were in a car headed east which collided head-on with one driven by James A. Taylor, 20, also Coeur d'Alene. Taylor was listed in serious condition in a Coeur d'Alene hospital.

NAMPA, March 2 (AP)—A plastic sheet was blamed today for the suffocation of a three-month-old Nampa boy, Dr. Henry C. Wesche, Canyon county coroner, said Randy Gene Shaul died at his home Sunday morning. The coroner said the child became entangled in the sheet. He was the son of Mrs. Mathona Shaul, Nampa, and Alvin Shaul, Boise.

Mormons Plan World's Fair Pavilion

NEW YORK, March 2 (AP)—An exhibit showing the appearance of Christ to the inhabitants of the Western hemisphere will be featured at the Mormon pavilion at the New York World's Fair, it was disclosed yesterday.

Christ's appearance in this hemisphere after his resurrection is recorded in the Book of Mormon and is a basic tenet of the LDS church.

The artist is Daniel L. Hadley, Wilmington, Del., and the drawings he is building also will show another scene, that of Christ talking with his followers in Jerusalem.

The exhibits in the Mormon pavilion are designed to fit the theme: "Man's search for happiness"—and the building and grounds are meant as a quiet and relaxing refuge from the bustle of the fair.

Hadley also is working on other exhibits for the pavilion. He has produced 15 projects for the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, and eight of his models made from drawings by Leonardo da Vinci were displayed at the Seattle World's Fair in 1962.

Sugar Beet Acreage Hike Is Suggested

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP)—The president of the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce proposes that acreage be taken out of the U.S. soil bank and planted to sugar beets.

"Not only would this prevent Cuba from re-entering the world sugar market, but it would accelerate greater agricultural and industrial development by unleashing our free enterprise system," said Richard H. Headlee.

The Jaycee president, from Bountiful, Utah, made his proposal at a governmental affairs seminar attended by several hundred members of the organization from all 50 states Sunday night.

Headlee said that 17,536,333 acres are now in the soil bank having been diverted from production of crops by government payment in return for government payments. "Why wait until 1972 to end our present diversion program?" he asked.

The United States imports most of the sugar it consumes. The Cuban sugar quota in recent years has been allotted to other sugar producing nations. A smaller percentage comes from U.S. cane and beet sugar producers.

Most of Cuba's sugar crop has gone to Russia and other communist nations in recent years in barter deals.

Headlee said the increase in beet sugar production would help keep Cuba from returning to the free world sugar market. Also, he said, it would create jobs in the United States by requiring more sugar refineries to process the domestic crop.

Good Member

By The Associated Press
Gov. Robert E. Smylie says he wouldn't have appointed state Democratic Chairman Lloyd Walker to the state water study committee if "I hadn't thought he'd make a good member."

Walker, Twin Falls attorney, declined to serve on the 31-member committee Saturday, labeling his appointment a "clumsy political stunt" aimed at eliminating bi-partisan discussion of the program.

Smylie said Sunday, however, that he thought Walker could make a "real contribution" to the committee.

"Of course," the governor said in a letter to Mr. Walker, "I was only a request, but I hadn't thought he'd make a good member of the committee. I would never have asked him to join it."

Glenn Forces Meet to Plan New Strategy

COLUMBUS, O., March 2 (AP)—Former Astronaut John H. Glenn's staff met today to draw new plans for the injured space hero's senatorial campaign.

"We plan as vigorous a campaign as time will permit," Campaign Chairman James P. Bell said as he called Glenn's top advisers into a meeting.

Glenn had planned to retire from the Marine corps last Saturday but head injuries suffered in a fall in his apartment bathroom delayed retirement until at least April 1.

"No thought whatsoever has been given to Glenn withdrawing from the campaign," Bell said.

Marine regulations provide that all retirements be on the first day of the month, which could keep Glenn on active duty at least until April 1.

"We will discuss the possibility of seeing if he could be released in mid-month," Bell said, "but we don't know yet what we will do."

Bell pointed out that doctors told Glenn it would be two or three weeks before he would be able to campaign, and Bell indicated that if Glenn would be on the shelf until late in the month they might not attempt to seek earlier release for the lieutenant colonel.

Prison Camp Inmate Tells Of Terror

FRANKFURT, Germany, March 2 (AP) — Children were thrown alive onto burning piles of rubbish near the Auschwitz concentration camp, gas ovens, an inmate of the camp testified today.

Dr. Ella Lingens, 55, an official of the Austrian social ministry, was an inmate physician in the women's section of the camp.

"I first couldn't believe the SS guards would burn children alive," she told the court.

Twenty-two former camp officials, now defendants in Germany's biggest war crimes trial, listened attentively as the tall, gray-haired, Viennese woman testified.

Dr. Lingens was sent to Auschwitz for helping Jews escape abroad.

She said she survived because she was a physician and an Aryan. German Aryans were treated better than Jews, Poles and Russians, Mrs. Lingens said.

Body Found in Utah Haystack

HEBER, Utah, March 2 (AP) — The body of a 22-year-old Denver man was found Sunday in a haystack seven miles north of here.

The victim, identified as George Benning Witt, had a bullet hole in his chest and a 30-30 rifle at his side.

Wasatch County Sheriff Floyd Witt, no relation to the victim, said it appeared to be suicide.

The sheriff said a car belonging to the victim was found about a mile-and-a-half from the haystack last October. At the time it was theorized that the vehicle belonged to a lost deer hunter.

TRY TIMES-NEWS WANT ADS

Rockefeller, the Arizona senator's chief announced opponent, returns to the Granite state Tuesday night for a solid week of campaigning before the balloting March 10.

Meanwhile, a Newsweek magazine poll revealed that Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, might whip both Goldwater and Rockefeller — if his name were on the New Hampshire ballot.

Supporters have been seeking write-in votes for Lodge and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon since neither is an announced candidate.

It was disclosed Sunday that Lodge's backers had mailed out 98,000 sample ballots, showing how to vote for delegates favorable to Lodge and how the ambassador's name should be written in on the ballot's presidential preference section.

The New Hampshire ballot lists only Goldwater, Rockefeller, Maine Sen. Margaret Chase Smith and Harold E. Stassen.

Over the week-end, Goldwater gained 48 first-ballot votes from Republicans in North Carolina and Oklahoma, which became the first states to complete their convention delegations. Gov. Scranton said in an interview with The Associated Press that his position remains that he would not turn down "a sincere and honest draft."

Area Deer Are Vigorous, And Healthy

A helicopter follow-up to the trend count flights of Jan. 29 found deer all vigorous and in apparent good health.

The flight was made on parts of the McMullen and Rock Creek drainages Thursday, Feb. 27. The purpose was to observe deer condition and movement since the January trend count.

Ray J. Holmes, Twin Falls, Idaho fish and game commission member from district four accompanied the area biologist on a flight over part of the northern Cassia winter range. In 50 minutes over the area 742 deer were observed. A total of 1,624 deer were counted in the Cassia unit on the January count.

Fat and Anthony Russo fired doubles games of 441, 438 and 418 as they amassed the first championship caliber score of the eight-day-old tournament. Gus Oswald and Gerry Schmidt, Fort Wayne, Ind., won the 1963 total with a 1,337 total.

Red Wings Tie Rangers 2-2

NEW YORK, March 2 (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings virtually ended the slim hopes of the New York Rangers for the fourth-place berth in the National Hockey League playoffs when they tied the Rangers 2-2 Sunday night.

MacDonald's goal, his 15th, wiped out a 2-1 Ranger lead built on goals by Dick Duff. Recently obtained from Toronto in a seven-player trade, Duff had put the Rangers ahead with less than 10 minutes to play.

Declines Comment

TEMPE, Ariz., March 2 (AP)—Arizona State University athletic director Clyde Smith declined comment Sunday on a newspaper report that the National Collegiate Athletic Association is investigating alleged athletic irregularities at the school.

The CHICAGO WHITE SOX have knuckle ball pitchers Hoyt Wilhelm, left, and Eddie Fisher reserved for the tricky pitch along with the king-size glove, held by manager Al Lopez, for catching it. Major leagues are considering outlawing the glove, but it will be used by the White Sox until it is banned. Battery men are training at the Sox camp. (AP wirephoto)

Celtics Win; Remain in Division Lead

BOSTON, March 2 (AP)—The Boston Celtics defeated Philadelphia 108-93 Sunday, preserving their 2½-game lead over Cincinnati in the Eastern division race of the National Basketball Association.

Tom Heinsohn's early scoring spree sparked the Celtics to a 47-24 lead midway in the second period.

Philadelphia fought back into contention when Boston scored only four points in the next 7½ minutes. But at the end of this cold stretch, the Celtics still led, 61-48, and they gradually wore down the 76ers, who operated with only seven men.

It was Jim Loscutt's day at halftime as the nine-year Celtics veteran was given gifts and testimonials. Loscutt, who previously announced his retirement at the end of the coming season, was just appointed head basketball coach at Boston State college.

Olympic Skier Nabs Kiwanis Jumping Title

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., March 2 (AP)—Gene Kotlarek, Duthart, Minn., outdrew the townsmen-hired gun, Italian Nilo Zandanel of Cortina, Sunday to win the National Kiwanis Ski-Jumping championship on giant Pine Mountain hill.

A crowd estimated at more than 20,000 showed up in 50-degree weather to watch the small 26-year-old Zandanel attempt to set an American distance record.

He sailed 472 feet for a world mark two weeks ago at Osterdorf, Germany, and was imported for this tourney to try to move the American record of 322 feet from Steamboat Springs, Colo., back to Pine Mountain.

But Nilo bumped up to a faster draw in Olympic team member Kotlarek, 23-year-old, accountant who holds the U.S. record of 332 feet set last year at Steamboat Springs.

The Pine Mountain hill record of 317 feet was not even approached as the sun blazed down and started melting the packed snow slide of the towering icy-fall, slowing the take-off speeds.

Robinson May Be Sox Holdout

SARASOTA, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Outfielder Floyd Robinson may be the only front-line holdout Monday when the Chicago White Sox open their full-squad spring drills.

BERLIN, N. H., March 2 (AP)—Olympian John Belfanz, Minneapolis, Minn., added another ski jumping title to his list Sunday, capturing the North American championship.

Belfanz won the national jumping title at Ishpeming, Mich., two weeks ago and won the German and Swiss championships in Europe recently.

The longest jump of the day was turned in by Pete Langlois, Bear Mountain, N.Y., who leaped 232 feet. He placed seventh in Class A after two much shorter efforts. The 232-foot jump was a record on the recently remodeled hill here.

Three Reds Miss Training Start

TAMPA, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Three Cincinnati pitchers were missing Sunday as the Reds started spring training drills.

One of them, Joey Jay, has permission to report Thursday with the rest of the squad. The others, Al Worthington and John Taitouris, have not yet signed their 1964 contracts.

Manager Fred Hutchinson said he was pleased with the way his men looked in early drills.

Almost from the beginning, it was apparent that it was only a matter of time before Ramos would catch up with the dancing Seki. It came in round five when Ramos started with a hard right to Seki's stomach.

U.S. Places Full Team in Next World Skate Meet

DORTMUND, Germany, March 2 (AP)—The president of the U.S. Figure Skating association said Sunday the United States has taken a big stride toward a comeback in international competition after a plane crash killed its figure skating team in 1961. ## Pearson Predicts Yankees Will Not Win AL Pennant This Year

MIAMI, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Albie Pearson neither drinks nor smokes. As far as is known, he doesn't game, either. If he has any vices at all, it's that of making wild predictions. . . like the Yankees not winning the pennant this year. It could have been the fine round he had turned in a week ago at the baseball players golf tournament on the Lefebvre course. The flush of success may have gone to his head. Anyway, the diminutive center fielder of the Los Angeles Angels picked the Minnesota Twins to wrest the league championship from the Yankees in 1964.

"I look for the closest race since the Yankees finished third in 1959," said the 5-foot-5½-inch star. "And I think Minnesota will take it. I also look for Detroit and Chicago to be right up there, too."

Mighty big talk for a little man. Had he forgotten that the Yankees won easily last year, despite crippling injuries to Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, which sidelined the M and M sluggers for long periods of time?

"That's right," Pearson conceded. "The bench helped them win last year. But they do it again? How will these same guys perform when they play as regulars? And they may have to if the same injuries recur."

"One of these years the law of averages and age will catch up to the Yankees. It could happen suddenly. And it could be that. Take Whitey Ford. He's a great pitcher but he's 35. How much longer can he remain in the league? I realize I'm a little man but I figure if I am to play a big man's game, I might as well play like a big man or punt on third down. I don't concede a thing to anybody."

"I may not be able to match others in the brain department but there's no law that says a little man can't have as much brains as a big man."

"The Mighty Mike won rookie-of-the-year honors with Washington in 1958 but couldn't escape the sophomore jinx and was swapped to Baltimore the following season. He finished the year with a .216 batting average and soon thereafter was shipped back to the minor leagues."

Glynn another chance in the big time when the American league expanded to 10 teams in 1961. L1 Albie blossomed into a top flight star.

Last year, his third with the Angels, was his best. He led the club in hits, runs, doubles and stolen bases and his .304 batting average was the fourth highest in the league.

Koufax Misses Dodgers Manager's Season-Opening Clubhouse Talk

VERO BEACH, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Pitching star Sandy Koufax missed Manager Walter Alston's season-opening clubhouse talk to the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday. He was explaining to owner Walter O'Malley his dissatisfaction with an event that preceded his signing a $70,000 contract last Friday.

"Sandy is a fine and sensitive boy," O'Malley said after asking for the conference with his 25th birthday. "I heard there were some things he wanted to get off his chest. I think he feels better about it now and I'm sure he'll feel even better after he talks to Bavasi." Dodger General Manager E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi is due in camp from Los Angeles on Thursday.

When that is over, O'Malley said, he expects Sandy to have another great year.

Koufax had told reporters he was satisfied with his contract but was upset because he felt he had been forced into a position where he had to sign.

He referred to a headline in Los Angeles several hours before he signed last Friday afternoon. It said: "Koufax Threatens Dodgers—$50,000 or I'll quit."

Koufax said the story quoted Bavasi as saying he wasn't willing to accept a $50,000 raise. I can imagine the thoughts that went through any one's mind who makes $4,800 a year."

Koufax ended his session with O'Malley in time to participate in a two-hour workout in 20-degree heat.

"I made an agreement with Bavasi that we wouldn't hash this thing out in the newspapers. But in the story last Friday, he said I wasn't willing to accept a $50,000 raise. I can imagine the thoughts that went through any one's mind who makes $4,800 a year."

Art Wall Wins Bogota Open Golf Tourney

BOGOTA, Columbia, March 2 (AP)—Art Wall Jr., fashion designer, won the Bogota Open golf tourney with a 72-hole total of 280.

It was his second victory in three tournaments on the current Caribbean tour for the 40-year-old former U.S. Masters champion from Ponce, Puerto Rico.

Wall, who had entered the final round in a three-way tie for first, was a little erratic in the gusty winds that swept the 6,970-yard Los Lagartos Country club course, hitting four birdies and three bogeys.

But host pro Miguel Sala and England's Alex Caygill, who shared the third round lead, blew sky-high. Caygill went to a 75 and third place at 284 while Sala took a 77 and a share of fifth place.

All Bessellink got a final round put 70 for a 285 total and second place. Caygill was tied, followed by Roman Sola, Spain, with a 285. Sala was tied with Jay Dolan, Leicester, Mass., and Wilf Homanuk, for fifth, each with a 288.

Moser Is Winner Of Cordoba Prix

CORDOBA, Argentina, March 2 (AP)—Silvio Moser, a tiny Swiss driver, won the Cordoba Grand Prix in his British Brabham Sunday.

The 36-year-old Moser, having a bit by motor trouble at the start of the final 20 laps, did the 76 miles in one hour, 12 minutes, 52 seconds. He averages 62 miles per hour.

Juan Manuel Bordeu, Argentina, driving a Lotus, was second and Franz Dörflinger, Germany, driving a Lotus, third.

Wool Prices Continue Their Climb

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP)—Domestic wool prices continue an upward trend in February, 1964. At that time, prices received by farmers averaged 89 cents a pound, since then it has climbed to 42.7 cents.

Reporting this, the agriculture department said an important factor in the price increase has been declining domestic production. Nevertheless, American prices are below world prices. This fact, said a department wool situation report, is expected to encourage domestic mills to buy more domestically-grown wool than normal during the months ahead.

The report said world prices have been strengthened by a continuing short supply of wool stocks in consuming countries and a relatively stable mill use of wool.

700 Smokers Begin Second Day of 'Quitters' Program

LINCOLN, Neb., March 2 (AP)—Some 700 persons determined to kick the tobacco habit today began the second day of a five-day "quitters" program.

The five-day clinic was developed by a South Lancaster, Mass., physician and a Seventh Day Adventist church pastor. It calls for a fruit diet, long walks, deep-breathing and tepid showers.

If the nicotine victim is really hooked, there is a crash cure program that includes icy cold showers or ice water rub-downs. The method for dropping "the habit" was developed by Dr. J. W. McFarland and Pastor E. J. Folkenberg.

Folkenberg said that by the third day, 50 per cent of those attending the clinic will lose their cravings for tobacco. He said the number will jump to 70 their bad accounts and known shop lifters. A list will be made from these names and given to every business doing credit in Burley if the group agrees on the action.

Solons Push for Beef Import Cuts

WASHINGTON, March 2 (AP)—Members of Congress from livestock range states are pushing a new drive for legislation to clamp down on foreign meat imports. The program will continue through Thursday night. Those attending will carry the technique back to their fellow citizens in Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, Wyoming and Colorado.

At least 94 senators and as many representatives are sponsoring bills to restrict imports by setting quotas which would give domestic producers a larger share of the nation's livestock and meat market.

Sen. Mike Mansfield and Lee Metcalf, Montana Democrats, have introduced a bill which is co-sponsored by 19 other senators. Many of them from the West.

Rep. Arnold Olsen, D. Mont., popped the first bill in the house hopper, and 23 of his colleagues followed suit last week.

Most of the bills would limit imports of beef, veal and mutton to the average of the last five years.

Sens. Gordon Allott and Peter H. Dominick, Colorado Republicans, are cosponsoring with Sen. Roman Hruska, R. Neb., a meat amendment to a cotton-wheat bill.

Like the other quota bills, this amendment would restrict imports to the five-year average.

Allott and Dominick were critical of a recently announced voluntary agreement with Australia and New Zealand, which would permit imports averaging those of 1962-63.

"In view of that disastrous agreement," the Coloradoans said in a joint statement, "our legislation seems the only means of providing any relief to our vital livestock industry."

Emergency action is necessary for our livestock industry to survive," Mansfield, senior Democratic leader and Metcalf in a joint letter to the tariff commission supported the cattle industry's request for either quota or import tax protection.

The voluntary agreement, the Montanans said, constitute only a small step in the right direction.

Many of the Westerners were critical because they said the agreement was based on record-high imports in 1962 and 1963.

Olsen said the agreement would bring an import reduction of only six per cent, "which is not sufficient to rescue our cattle industry from grievous injury by reason of the foreign supply."

Rep. Ralph R. Harding, R. Ida., said of the voluntary agreement:

"I was very disappointed, along with most of the representatives and senators from livestock states, with the failure of our state department and department of agriculture to reach an agreement more favorable to the domestic livestock industry."

"When we agreed for them to go to bat for us, we were most hopeful they would hit a home run."

"Instead, at the very best, they only achieved a dribbling infield single."
